Patterns of injustice that repeat: The global economy operating normally

This moving article and accompanying photos –by the “Green Blood” project– addresses mining company / Guatemalan state violence, environmental devastation and human rights violations caused by the Swiss-based company Solway Investment Group (<https://solwaygroup.com/>) and its Guatemalan subsidiary CGN.

Solway bought CGN from Hubday Minerals in 2011.

While mining repression continues unabated today in the Maya Q'eqchi' region of eastern Guatemala, Hudbay Minerals and CGN are being sued in precedent-setting lawsuits in Canadian courts for mining repression (the killing of a community leader, gang-rape of 11 women villagers, shooting-paralyzing of a local farmer) that occurred when Hudbay and Skye Resources were trying to operate the mine from 2004-2011.
