RIDDLE

What happens to a US & Canadian-backed drug-trafficking regime in the middle of a forest?

If a corrupt, repressive US and Canadian-backed government traffics cocaine in the middle of the forest, for over a decade, will any US or Canadian politicians or prosecutors investigate the legal liability of US and Canadian government officials and politicians for their policies and actions?

Will any US or Canadian media outlets properly investigate and call for political and legal consequences?

Until his arrest by the DEA in 2020, Geovanny Fuentes Ramirez -“GFR”- was a powerful, murderous, cocaine trafficker. He facilitated shipments of large loads of cocaine to the US, by bribing the US and Canadian-backed President of Honduras, Juan Orlando Hernández Alvarado, amongst other people in the government, military and police.

Honduras - over the past 12 years - has been a standard-bearing 'Mafia-State' or 'Narco-State'.

President Orlando Hernández (staunch “democratic ally” of the US and Canada since the June 28, 2009 US and Canadian-backed coup ousted Honduras’ last democratically elected government) instructed GFR to report directly to Tony Hernandez, the president’s brother, who was at the time a congressman and member of the ruling National Party.

“In or about 2013, FUENTES RAMIREZ paid a bribe of at least approximately $25,000 to Honduran president Juan Orlando Hernández Alvarado (“JOH”), who was at the time president of the Honduran National Congress, and allowed JOH to access millions of dollars’ worth of cocaine from FUENTES RAMIREZ’s laboratory. In connection with negotiations relating to the laboratory, JOH told FUENTES RAMIREZ that he was interested in access to the laboratory because of its proximity to Puerto Cortés, a key shipping port on the northern coast of Honduras. JOH also told FUENTES RAMIREZ that the Honduran armed forces would provide security, and that Óscar Fernando Chinchilla Banegas, the Attorney General of Honduras, would help protect FUENTES RAMIREZ’s drug trafficking activities. JOH instructed FUENTES RAMIREZ to report directly to JOH’s brother, Juan Antonio Hernández Alvarado (“Tony Hernández”), for purposes of their drug trafficking partnership. Finally, JOH told FUENTES RAMIREZ that he wanted to make the DEA think that Honduras was fighting drug trafficking, but that instead he was going to eliminate extradition and “stuff drugs up the gringos’ noses,” referring to flooding the United States with cocaine.”

“In October 2019, Tony Hernández was convicted of the same offenses as FUENTES RAMIREZ, as well as an additional count of making false statements to the DEA.
